

Serving on the ARB

- ARB members commit to serve a term of two years.
- ARB members are compensated for their time and service.
- Members are provided with training to learn the requirements and responsibilities of serving on this board.
- The ARB generally preside over protest hearings through the summer months of June, July, and August, usually meeting three days a week.
- When necessary the board will be called in to serve more often, and/or during other times of the year.
