4. Eligibility and Conflict of Interest Disclosure

In order to ensure that ARB members are impartial, the law puts a number of limits on who can serve as ARB members. Your answer to these questions will determine whether you are legally eligible to serve on the ARB. For the purposes of these questions:

- A “local government” is a government entity that levies property taxes, such as a county, city, school district, municipal utility district, college, hospital district, or other special district.
- “Appraisal District” refers to Burnet Central Appraisal District and to any other appraisal district in the State of Texas.
- “Governing body” means the group of officials that oversee a local government, such as a city county, county commissioners court, school board of trustees, or board of directors.
- “Officer” means holding an elective or appointive office for a local government, such as governing body member, chief executive officer, judge, tax assessor, business manager, superintendent, etc., and include an election judge, alternate election judge, and election clerk who serve in conducting a general election.
- “Part-time employee” includes a substitute teach. “Contract” means an agreement of any sort.
- “Substantial interest” means combined ownership by you and your spouse of at least 10% of the voting stock or shares of a business entity, or that you or your spouse is a partner, limited partner, or office of the business entity.

Check “Yes” or “No”. If you are not sure, write “not sure”.
